Not so long ago in 1963, the up and coming talent of Carol Williams was being noticed at Methven District High School, where she was in Form 3 (now called Year 9).

"I was always good at running and would go to sprinting competitions in Temuka and Christchurch. Carol was described as being good at sport and she enjoyed it.

"We had an Athletics Club in Methven which ran regularly at the Domain. My Parents Stan and Pearl Williams always supported me. Mervyn Crowe trained me later on and took us to different athletic meetings at weekends," Carol said. She went on to win the Athletics Cup at Methven District High School.

Her daughter Lisa would later follow in her running shoes. Lisa was always good at athletics at school and Carol said she was a good all rounder.

"We had one day and did everything on one day (no prelims) - sprinting, triple jump (hop, skip, jump into the long jump pit), long jump, not javelin, shot put and discus," Lisa said.

"I remember when she got into her first Counties," said Carol. "Lisa ran back to the car and was put off by all the people. No amount of talking helped so she didn't compete in that first one, but did after that."

"We went to QE 2 and then down the hydroslide after, which was lots of fun," recalled Lisa. She won the Athletics Cup at what had become Methven High School.

Lisa's daughter Ella is also excelling in Athletics, attending what is now known as Mt Hutt College.

"Ella is really good and will try anything," said Carol.

"She enters all the optional stuff and she does like doing it," said Lisa and Ella agrees.

"I like the running as you just have to go and beat them, but discus is better because you get three goes at it and you don't have to do it within a certain time. The adrenaline with running is cool."

A pretty unique occurrence - three ladies from the same family have won the Athletics Cup, along with Ella's Aunt, Tania Quinn, (now Wallace) and all have their names engraved on it.

Lisa won the cup 30 years after her Mum, Carol, and Ella won it 31 years after Lisa. Who knows what will happen in thirty years time? And what might the College be called then?

Snowfed Christmas Colouring Winners

A very successful Christmas colouring in competition, supported by a number of generous local businesses resulted in some excited winners, announced over the weekend!

The competition concept came about during a brainstorming session in the Snowfed office, where we wanted to do something nice in the community for Christmas. Our amazing Lucy Tombleson organised it all.

Thanks to the creative talents of Sam Elliot, (who created the picture to colour) and his Dad Jason, who created the Santa Post Box at Station Coffee, entries for the competition flooded in. Snowfed printed the colouring in competition in the newspaper along with heaps of extras, which were quickly scooped up. It was clear that all competitors put lots of effort into their colouring in and the judges had a very tough decision on their hands.

Prizes were generously sponsored by Dirt Bandits, Simply Delicious and Rosa Dekker at Bayleys Real Estate.

Winners of the Dirt Bandits experiences are Cameron McCaw, Dan Clark and Farrah Wilson. The winner of the Simply Delicious Celebration Slab is Tessa Sim. Harry Ridge, George Lock, Hugo de Kleijn and Sadie Sim each won a $10 Simply Delicious ice cream voucher and Zealah, Alyssa Cuttle and Rosa Guild have won vouchers sponsored by Rosa Dekker. All prize winners have been notified.

Many thanks to Dirt Bandits, Simply Delicious and Rosa Dekker for sponsoring the prizes.

Like Wallace & Gromit? National Youth Brass Band is coming!

The 2025 NZ National Youth Brass Band, led by Tyme Marsters from Christchurch, will perform at the Ashburton Event Centre on Friday 24 January 2025.

The band is proud to present what they're sure will be a cracking live concert for the whole family to enjoy. The first half features solos from band members alongside an entertaining programme of classic and contemporary music, which includes pieces everyone is sure to know and love as well as some new music which showcases the versatility of brass bands.

The nationwide representative band comprises of 35 of New Zealand's most talented young brass and percussion musicians under twenty-three years of age. They're selected from nationwide auditions of members from community-based brass bands, throughout New Zealand.

For the second half, the band is delighted to present the New Zealand premiere of Wallace and Gromit: The Wrong Trousers. The much-loved movie will be shown while the band plays the soundtrack live, and the band is looking forward to performing this for the first time in New Zealand.

The Ashburton concert of the NZ National Youth Brass Band will be held at the Ashburton Event Centre at 7pm on Friday 24 January. Come along and join them for what is sure to be an enjoyable and entertaining evening of music.

Tickets are on sale now at: <https://asheventcentre.co.nz/event/wallace-and-gromit-the-national-youth-brass-band/>

FROM THE EDITOR Mai i te Etita

As I write, in the Snowfed office, I'm listening to the rain twinkling down on the iron roof and thinking that with the hundreds and hundreds of raindrops that fall, so are there hundreds and hundreds of you who do so much in our community to make it the amazing place that it is. Thank you.

Thank you for being the wonderful you that you are and the giving you freely give. It is often at this time of Christmas that we thank and recall the kindnesses, generosity and goodwill that enables us to live our lives, do our mahi (work) and look after others.

I want to draw attention to the wonderful people who are part of our Snowfed team - thank you for what you do to share the Snowfed with our Foothills communities, New Zealand communities and globally - we have a strong domestic and overseas readership and following which is not limited to Mid Canterbury!

- Canprint staff - you guys have my back for 49 weeks per year, thank you!
- Lucy Tombleson
- Bethany Gibbs
- Mary Ralston
- James Meager
- Our fantastic residential delivery team: Charlie, Ella and Grace - you do a fabulous job with only three weeks off per year - thank you!
- Our regular article writers and school article contributors
- All of our Rural Delivery Teams
- Dave Dynes and the Methven Travel Bus Drivers who deliver to our country stores
- All of the businesses who advertise with us - we love to share your message with our readers, thank you for your valued business

- Betty Dawkins - our wonderful community watch dog and article writer - you have so many people wondering who you are (and no, it is not Annie!)
- Carmen Lye - the mini breaks you have given me over the last five years are invaluable
- New Zealand Couriers for your reliable fast service every week
- Our Sports and Clubs contributors: Colin Clemens, John Peneycad, Sam Crofsky, Tania Wilson, Annette Maw, Geoff Rhodes and Chris Woods
- Legal Deposit at the National Archives in Wellington - thank you for looking after each issue for generations to come
- Thanks to you who've shared your story with our readership - there is so much to be positive about in our community
- You, our readership

The Snowfed is a pretty unique newspaper - it is thought that it is the only newspaper in New Zealand and maybe the Southern Hemisphere, that is owned by the local college. As well as providing a free, vital, connective weekly link for our wider community, thanks to the foresight of teacher Bruce Dickson; the profit that it makes goes back into furthering the education of our children.

Show love, be kind, be considerate, have a wonderful Christmas and a safe, happy holiday season.

Annie

Kaikoura Coast Lures Ladies Walking Group

Alison Hydes

Nine ladies from the Womens Walking Group set off recently to do the Kaikoura Coast track just south of the Conway River. We arrived at our first night's accommodation by the sea in time for an evening meal. The first day's walk involves walking along the beach for about an hour then the track heads inland to a hut set up as a lunch stop. From here, the track climbed a little then we walked in bush gradually climbing until we came out on a hill, with superb views of the coastline. Off to our accommodation, we'd decided to supply our own meals. The next day we were picked up and taken out to the main highway for the start of the second day. We gradually climbed up Skull hill (about 500m high) and rewarded with fabulous views of the coast line and mountains behind. Then it was all downhill back to the start of the track from the day before. This track is a self guided walk of about 5-6 hours walking and where your luggage is transported for you.

Some of us stayed on to climb Mt Fyffe in Kaikoura. The views were fantastic of the snowy mountain tops and the township of Kaikoura and the surrounding area. We had a lovely fine day to climb this mountain. It took us about four and a half hours to get to the top, then three hours downhill.

All in all, a lovely three days tramping.

Shear For Life is Back

Mandy Verrall

Shear For Life - In Remembrance of Absent Friends is back and will be held on 1st February 2025.

The event returns for a second time and is similar to the 2019 event, albeit a little different.

Shearers over the age of 50 years will shear 3,000 sheep in an eight hour period. Legends of the shearing industry will be in attendance and shearing, along with some All Blacks greats. The day is a very family friendly day with a family activities area for the kids.

We are also running a teddy bear shearing competition! Our Facebook page SHEAR for Life, has plenty of information regarding the previous event that was held in 2019 raising an amazing $90,000 for Cancer Support and the Prostate Foundation.

Raffles and Auctions are going to be run on the day with all items having been donated. Our two major recipients of the money being raised this time around are Hospice Mid Canterbury and the Ashburton Cancer Society.

Mark the date on the calendar and come along for a fun day out that raises money for a great cause!

NATIONAL MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT

Mid Canterbury Leading New Zealand's Agricultural Success

James Meager

As I travel around our electorate, I'm constantly reminded of the incredible contribution Mid Canterbury makes to New Zealand's economy.

This week's announcement of record-breaking projections for our food and fibre sector reinforces just how significant that contribution is.

The Ministry for Primary Industries is forecasting our nation's agricultural exports to reach nearly $57 billion by mid-2025, before pushing on to an unprecedented $58.3 billion the following year.

Behind these impressive figures are the thousands of hard-working Mid Canterbury families who get up early every morning to produce world-class food and fibre products.

What's particularly encouraging is the broad-based nature of this growth. While dairy remains our powerhouse, set to generate $25.5 billion in export earnings, we're seeing strong performance across all sectors.

Meat and wool exports of $11.4 billion and a booming horticultural sector reaching $8 billion demonstrate how our region's agricultural diversity is creating resilience.

The Government understands that achieving these results requires removing obstacles that stand in farmers' way. That's why we've already taken action to slash unnecessary red tape, reduce compliance costs, and free up our primary producers to do what they do best.

I'm particularly pleased with this week's announcement about innovative public-private partnerships for tree planting on Crown land.

This smart approach means we can advance our environmental goals without compromising valuable farmland.

It's exactly the kind of practical solution our region needs – one that balances economic and environmental priorities while creating new opportunities.

During my regular farm visits across Mid Canterbury, farmers tell me they want policies that make sense on the ground, not just in Wellington.

The recent changes we've implemented show we're listening and responding to these concerns.

There's growing global demand for premium agricultural products with strong environmental credentials. Mid Canterbury is perfectly positioned to meet this demand, and with continued government support, we'll remain at the forefront of New Zealand's export success story.

Well done to Miniball Methven Red!

Congratulations to Methven Red Y5/6 who proudly earned runners up in B Grade at the end of this year's 2024 Miniball season.

Even with a few newcomers to miniball for the season this team all worked so hard together, each player showed great sportsmanship. Three of our players received individual awards. Kyree Cooksley was awarded Girls Got Game All Star 5. Haven Cooksley and Beatrix Poyner both were awarded: B Grade All Star 5 awards.

We thank Philip Wareing Ltd for sponsoring our team shirts.

GROW YOUR OWN

Mary Ralston

In any season, there are crops that are especially good, some that fail and many that are reliably average.

This spring/summer (so far), I have had good lettuces and broad beans, but the garlic is a failure. Rust has invaded! This is a fungal disease that produces rust coloured spots on the leaves, and can happen in humid weather. The leaves wither, growth is reduced and the bulbs are of poor size and quality.

The garlic also has mouldy bulbs and although both conditions flourish in humid conditions, it seems these are different diseases. On some bulbs that are not too bad, the mould can be scraped off and the remaining part used.

And today I have probably done exactly the wrong thing – watered in the morning while it was cool, thinking it was going to stay that way – but the sun is now beating down and the day hot...perfect conditions for fungal disease to set in on the onions. Hopefully it will be okay.

Tomatoes are a needy crop. They like plenty of water and nutrients, need support and are susceptible to disease. To maximise your chances of a good crop, keep them well watered, give a liquid feed every few weeks and minimise the risk of fungal attack by keeping them well off the ground with stakes or winding around a string. Cutting off any lower leaves that are touching the ground helps minimise disease by improving air circulation, and helps more light reach the ripening fruit.

Greenhouses have been getting pretty hot lately – ventilation is really important, so have them open as much as possible.

Apples are growing quickly and if there's a lot on your tree, it's a good idea to thin them so that there are only three in a cluster.

It's also a good idea to remove fruit from first year trees, so that the tree puts its energy into growing into a healthy sturdy tree rather than fruit.

Merry Christmas from the team at

Thank you for all the support this year!

Methven Central Opening Confirmed Janine Holland

We confirmed at our recent AGM that in the middle of next year, Methven Central's modern, well-equipped care home will officially open.

The replacement for Methven House resthome will offer fifteen care rooms and five studio care suites. Residents from Methven House and the flats will be the first to move to the complex next to The Blue

Pub. There is a buzz of excitement, mixed with a bit of nervousness, as they prepare for this significant change. Our team is working carefully to make the transition as seamless as possible for residents with support from both committees, MAPWAI (Methven Aged Persons Welfare Association Inc) and MCT (Methven Care Trust).

The first resident of Methven Central's retirement apartments moves in this month. In the new year, we hope to profile him, but by all accounts he's delighted with his new home. A second apartment is under offer, and the remaining four apartments are available to view over Christmas and New Year. To arrange a visit to the apartments or to find out more about the complex, please call

Mandy Mee on 021 867 322. You can also visit our website www.methvencentral.org.nz

Thanks to this generous community, locals have raised almost $3.75 million to support the build of this modern carehome. Apartment sales will contribute a further $1 million. It has always been our goal to deliver Methven Central debt free. We aim to realise the final $750,000 prior to our official opening, so please talk to one of the Trustees or Mandy about how you can make a donation and support keeping our treasured elders in this community. Or visit our Give a Little Page <https://givealittle.co.nz/org/methvencaretrust>

METHVEN CRICKET CLUB

Chris Woods

The opportunity to play for the first time on a grass wicket this season was taken with pleasure and The Billygoats travelled to Coldstream this week to take on The Alpacas.

To think at lunchtime there was discussion about having to forfeit the match, Methven would have been happy with coming away with the win.

Having won the toss and electing to bowl, the pitch certainly lived up to the hype and gave plenty of opportunities for both sides. Runs were slow to come by and wickets hard to obtain but some strong hitting towards the end saw Coldstream get through to 130 for the loss of only two wickets. Disciplined bowling from Methven saw them only bowl 5 extras this week, a considerable drop from other weeks.

Mention must be given to wicket keeper, Matt Mason, who helped keep these extras down with some great saves. Alex Keenan and Chris Woods the only bowlers to take a wicket each, but a team effort in the field ensured Methven had a chance to chase a little less than it certainly could have been.

In stepped young Finn McGrath, on loan from Mt Hutt College, straight into the breech opening in his first game of senior cricket. McGrath played an innings well beyond his years and showed maturity and fight to bat deep into the innings for his 44.

McGrath was well supported by Connor Glynn (38) and the boys kept the score ticking along and kept The Billygoats in the game, allowing some clean hitting from Adam Preston to finish the job. An impressive 22 not out off 10 balls, striking at 220, Preston took it to Coldstream and finished the job with balls to spare.

Methven play at home this week in the final game of the year and are tied for second position.
